We have all heard the news....parents are key in the faith development of young people, but.....
...how do we help parents willingly play their part in passing on the faith?
...how do we develop practical ways to partner with parents?
...what are some of the ways to successfully minister to families?

Join us for this opportunity to enrich your connection and your ministry to parents.

Bob McCarty began his position as Executive Director at the National Federation for Catholic Youth Ministry on June 2, 1997. Bob has been involved with the Federation since 1986 when he was the Region 14 coordinator. He served on the NFCYM Board of Directors for five years, and as chair of the board for two years.

Bob has his BS in sociology and theology from St. Joseph's University and his MA in religious education from La Salle University. Bob received his doctorate of ministry from the Graduate Theological Foundation in Indiana in May 1998.

Bob has been in professional youth ministry since 1973, serving in parish, diocesan, and community programs in the Archdioceses of Philadelphia and Baltimore. He continues to author resources for Catholic youth ministry and to provide training programs and presentations on ministry issues internationally.

Bob and his spouse, Maggie, have a daughter, Shannon, and they also volunteer at their parish in youth ministry at St. Francis of Assisi in Fulton, Maryland.
