HOMILY

17th Sunday Ordinary Time July 26, 2020

If you had three wishes, what would you wish for? We encounter this question in fairy tales and fables. What usually happens is that the person makes a series of bad choices; and in the process, they learn what truly matters. What commonly comes to mind is winning the lottery. At first glance, we may think that if we just had a lot of money our problems would all be solved; but we know that most of the things that really matter in life have nothing to do with money or material possessions. Having a lot of money just brings another host of problems. The more money and stuff you have, the more energy you have to expend taking care of it, energy that could be better spent doing what is important. We may wish for fame. Would you really want to be famous, no privacy, you do not know if people care about you or just want a piece of your fame? More problems, not fewer. Maybe you want power and control over others. This comes with a tremendous responsibility. You have to live with the effects of your decisions.

In the first reading today, the Lord asks Solomon what he wants. Solomon responds that he knows his vocation, the Lord has called him to be king. He asks the Lord for the wisdom to be a really good king. The Lord responds, good answer, and grants him his wish. Knowing our God given vocation, our purpose in life, and developing all of the skills we need to carry it out.

So, how does God act in our lives? How does God grant us this wish? In the second reading we hear, "We know that all things work for the good of those who love God." Notice it does not say those who believe in God, but those who love God. If we believe in God, we may believe that God is all knowing, all powerful and all loving; and this is true. But if we believe that this is true, we can also ask if these things are all true, why doesn't God just make our lives perfect and take away all pain and suffering? Well, that would be heaven, and we are not there yet. We can also think, if God does not make our lives perfect, he must be making bad things happen to us to test us, to teach us a lesson or to punish us for things we have done wrong. Or we may think that we have to wear God down with prayer so he will give in and give us what we want. That does not sound like a loving God.

Loving God goes beyond believing in God. When we really share love with someone, it is not based upon what we can get out of the relationship. The relationship itself is important. In the process of sharing love, we do get our needs met, but that is not the basis of the relationship. When we love God, we walk with him, we love and serve him by loving and serving one another. God helps us to get what we need to live out our vocation, the purpose he has given for our lives, so that we can be fulfilled, so that we can find meaning in our lives, so that we can find joy.

God has been very good to us. He created a world that is governed by natural law and, most of the time, I take great joy in this. It is this predictability that allows us to function. For example, that is how we can have the whole field of medicine. That is how we can figure out how to cure and prevent diseases. We have learned that if we eat a healthy diet, exercise, watch our weight and so forth, we will be healthy. We know what we need to do to be good stewards of our environment. We do not always do those things, and that is what causes many of our problems.

And now we have this coronavirus. We are not sure where this came from, but it will probably be governed by natural law and we will figure out how to overcome it. I wonder if we will be willing to do what we need to do to defeat the virus. But we cannot overcome it today; and until we defeat the virus, we must go on living. Today is what we have, and we can live well today if we decide to do that. Within the confines of being safe, how can we live out our vocation? How can we be better spouses, parents, sons and daughters, better friends? How do we have the social contacts we desperately need? We have to take some risks, but we do that every time we get into a car and every time we get on a plane. What have we learned so far about natural law? Wear a mask, social distance, stay away from people that are not being careful, outside is better than inside, stay out of large groups when possible, use technology, think of small acts of kindness. How can you make today the best that it can be? And we are going to have days that we are disoriented or sad. That is normal during this time. We are all grieving the loss of so many things in our lives. When we are grieving, we will have days where we just feel sad. That is normal. Maybe we even need to make a list of all the things that we have lost and feel sad about. But don't get stuck there. We also have to make a list of all of the things that we have to be grateful for. My list is very long and that can frequently pull me out of the sadness. And remember that we know that all things work for good for those who love God.

Love & Peace,
Fr. Jim

GOSPEL OF LIFE
Every Life is Worth Living From Conception to Natural Death

"To avoid the anxieties which may be caused by either regret for the past or fear of the future, here is the rule to follow:

The past must be left to God's measureless mercy, the future to His loving providence; and the present must be given wholly to His love through our fidelity to His grace."

Fr. Jean-Pierre de Caussade from "Abandonment to Divine Providence"

READING I ISAIAH 55:1-3

Thus says the Lord:
All you who are thirsty,
come to the water!
You who have no money,
come, receive grain and eat;
Come, without paying
and without cost,
drink wine and milk!
Why spend your money
for what is not bread;
your wages for what fails to satisfy?
Heed me, and you shall eat well,
you shall delight in rich fare.
Come to me heedfully,
listen, that you may have life.
I will renew with you
the everlasting covenant,
the benefits assured to David.

*The Word of the Lord
R: Thanks be to God*

Responsorial Psalm PS 145:8-9, 15-16, 17-18

The hand of the Lord
feeds us;
He answers all
our needs.

READING II
ROMANS 8:35, 37-39

Brothers and sisters:
What will separate us
from the love of Christ?
Will anguish, or distress,
or persecution, or famine,
or nakedness, or peril, or the sword?
No, in all these things
we conquer overwhelmingly through him who loved us.
For I am convinced that neither death, nor life,
nor angels, nor principalities,
nor present things, nor future things,
nor powers, nor height, nor depth,
nor any other creature
will be able to separate us
from the love of God
in Christ Jesus our Lord.

*The Word of the Lord
R: Thanks be to God*

GOSPEL
MATTHEW 14:13-21

When Jesus heard of the death of John the Baptist,
he withdrew in a boat to a deserted place by himself.
The crowds heard of this and followed him on foot from their towns.
When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd,
his heart was moved with pity for them, and he cured their sick.
When it was evening, the disciples
approached him and said,
"This is a deserted place
and it is already late;
dismiss the crowds
so that they can go to the villages
and buy food for themselves."
Jesus said to them, "There is no
need for them to go away;
give them some food yourselves."
But they said to him,
"Five loaves and two fish
are all we have here."
Then he said,
"Bring them here to me,"
and he ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass.
Taking the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven,
he said the blessing,
broke the loaves,
and gave them to the disciples,
who in turn gave them to the crowds.
They all ate and were satisfied,
and they picked up the fragments left over—twelve wicker baskets full.
Those who ate were about five thousand men,
not counting women and children.

*The Gospel of the Lord
R: Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ*

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
(All Bow)
and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.
For our sake he was crucified
under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand
of the Father,
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from
the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified,
who has spoken
through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic
and apostolic Church,
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead
and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

St. John Vianney

St. John Vianney's Feast Day is August 4th. In 1929, Pope Pius XI named him the patron saint of parish priests worldwide. Here is a prayer called the Prayer of St. John Vianney:

*I love you O my God, and my only desire is to love you until the last breath of my life.
 I love you O my infinitely lovable God, and I would rather die loving you, than live without loving you.
 I love you Lord, and the only grace I ask is to love you eternally.
 My God, if my tongue cannot say in every moment that I love you,
 I want my heart to repeat it to you as often as I draw breath.*

Give blood

Greetings fellow parishioners! I pray that you are well and staying safe during this unprecedented time in our country and world. Due to a tremendous response to Red Cross COVID 19 antibody testing for donors during the summer months, St. Edith has agreed to hold a community drive in the school gym on Sunday, August 23, 2020, 8:00 am - 2:00 pm. American Red Cross will test all blood donations for COVID-19 antibodies as an additional health service to our donors. Please note the Red Cross is not testing donors to diagnose illness, including COVID-19. An antibody test assesses whether your immune system has responded to the infection, not if the virus is currently present. The COVID-19 antibody test is authorized by the U.S. FDA and may indicate if the donor's immune system has produced antibodies to the coronavirus, regardless of whether they developed. If you feel unwell for any reason, please postpone your donation. Facial masks will be required of all donors, including staff, and all mitigation steps will be adhered to by Red Cross staff and any volunteers. Your donation will help benefit those current COVID-19 patients, as well as many others. If you can donate, please call 1-800-RedCross or go online to redcrossblood.org to make an appointment.

God bless you all, and thank you for your support.
