

Principal, St. Edith Catholic School

St. Edith Catholic School in Livonia, Michigan seeks a principal who possesses a strong commitment to the Catholic Faith and Catholic education. The school educates a diverse group of students in prekindergarten through grade eight. The school is and always has been a small school of approximately two hundred students. The school is part of a vibrant parish community; however, some students come from areas outside the parish boundaries to receive the benefit of a Catholic school education. St. Edith Catholic School is accredited by the Michigan Association of Non-public Schools. The new principal should be prepared to work closely with the pastor, faculty, staff, and parents as well as working with the Archdiocesan Department of Catholic Schools to ensure the vitality of our school.

Mission

St. Edith Catholic School “teaches as Jesus did” with love, care, and discipline, centering on the Eucharist, and focusing on students: our gifts and our future.
